

BY-LAWS OF NORTHEAST IOWA QUILTERS' GUILD

PREAMBLE:

This guild will be non-profit with the purpose of encouraging and promoting high standards in the practice and knowledge of quilting, conducting educational programs, and providing for the interchange of information.

ARTICLE I: DIRECTORS

- Section 1: The guild shall be managed by a board of directors of the members of the guild.
- Section 2: The board of directors shall consist of the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, publicity person, historian, newsletter editor, librarian, program chairperson(s), and show chairperson(s).
- Section 3: The term of office for each director shall be two years beginning at the June meeting, with the president, treasurer, newsletter editor, program chairperson(s), historian, being elected in the odd calendar years; and the vice president, secretary, librarian, publicity person, and program chairperson(s) being elected in the even calendar years. The term of a quilt show chairperson, elected in the odd calendar years, shall be four years. They will assist the current show chairperson with the next quilt show and chair the following quilt show.
- Section 4: There shall be meetings of the board of directors to conduct business of the guild as needed. Meetings of the board of directors may be called by any two members of the board. The board shall have a transitional meeting of all current and all new directors before the regular June meeting of the guild.
- Section 5: Notice of any meeting shall be given to the members of the board, either orally or in writing, at least three days prior to the meeting.
- Section 6: Directors shall receive no compensation, unless specifically granted by the members of the guild. Membership dues for NEIQG officers will be waived during their term in office. The membership thanks the board with this small compensation as a token of appreciation for the time and efforts they give to the Northeast Iowa Quilters' Guild.
- Section 7: Any vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the remaining members of the board.

ARTICLE II: DUTIES OF OFFICERS

- Section 1: The officers of the guild shall be president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, historian, newsletter editor, show chair(s), and program chairperson(s).
- Section 2: President: The duties of the president shall be to preside over meetings and to appoint, with board approval, committees necessary to the welfare of the guild.
- Section 3: Vice-President: The duties of the vice-president shall be, in the absence of the president, to perform presidential duties and to be responsible for the monthly hostesses, and to maintain charity quilt supplies.
- Section 4: Secretary: The duties of the secretary shall be to record and to be custodian of the minutes of the board and the minutes of the regular and annual meetings and to perform any needed correspondence.

- Section 5: Treasurer: The duties of the treasurer shall be to collect and take charge of all dues and funds made available to the guild; to keep a written account of all transactions involving the guild in a book provided by the guild; and to keep a membership list and provide it to the membership. Treasurer's books will be audited at least annually or as the board may determine. Non-budgeted expenditures exceeding $100.00 must be authorized by the board of directors. All funds are to be used to support the mission of the guild.
- Section 6: Historian: The duties of the historian shall be to take pictures of events, to keep clippings, to keep newsletters, and to place all materials in a scrapbook.
- Section 7: Newsletter Editor: The duties of the editor of the newsletter shall be to keep the membership up-to-date with newsletters, to keep track of and to collect payment for advertising, and to provide newsletters for Network.
- Section 8: Program Chair: The duties of the program chairperson(s) shall be to plan meetings and programs.
- Section 9: Show Chair: The duties of the show chairperson(s) shall be to organize and oversee show committees. The term of office for show chairs is four years. During the first half of this term the person assists the in-place show chair and during the last half of this term chairs the show with the assistance of a newly elected chairperson.
- Section 10: Additional committee chairpersons may be appointed for a term of one year as deemed necessary by the board of directors.

ARTICLE III: MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS

- Section 1: The date of the annual meeting shall be during the month of May at a designated or announced place and time.
- Section 2: At least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the annual meeting, the board of directors shall appoint a nominating committee of at least two members (1 board member and 1 general membership member). It shall be the duty of the nominating committee to present a slate of nominees to the membership at the annual meeting. The nominations of this committee shall not prohibit members from making other nominations from the floor at the annual meeting.
- Section 3: Members shall be notified of the annual meeting and the nominations of the nominating committee in the newsletter preceding the date of the annual meeting.
- Section 4: At any meeting of the members, the presence in person of 10% of the membership of the guild shall constitute a quorum and a majority of the quorum may decide any matter coming before the membership.
- Section 5: The members may meet at any other time, upon such notice as the president may prescribe, for the purposes of furthering the activities of the guild. No minutes need be kept at these meetings unless some action is taken which is binding on the guild.
- Section 6: There may be a regular meeting(s) of the guild on the first Tuesday of each month.
- Section 7: A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a board meeting, and a simple majority of the quorum may decide any questions.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

- Section 1: Membership shall be open to any person.

Section 2: The annual membership dues shall be payable, commencing with the June meeting, in an amount determined by the board of directors.

ARTICLE V: GENERAL

Section 1: This guild shall not have any stock or pay any dividends, nor shall it have a seal.

Section 2: Each member shall have one vote and there shall be no proxy voting.

Section 3: The guild shall have such fiscal year as may be adopted by the board of directors and the books shall be subject to audit at least annually or as the board may determine.

Section 4: These by-laws may be amended at any meeting by a majority of the members.

Section 5: The guild adopts Robert's Rules of Order as its authority on parliamentary law.

Section 6: All funds are to be used to support the mission of the guild.

Adoption:

These bylaws of the Northeast Iowa Quilters' Guild shall become effective when adopted by the board of directors and membership.
